SPOTTED LIKE DOMINORS.—The teeth soon become speckled if every defilement is not removed from them every twentyfour hours. To do this effectually there is nothing like Sozodont. It literally renders the enamel impervious and indestruc-tible. 12-1-d&w1w

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.—H. Sayers has removed from No. 93 to 95 Ohio Levee, where he is paying the highest prices in classes were united. There is one, however, and a very notable one too, viz.: A belief which is implicit and universal in the paramount efficacy of that matchless Household Tonic and Recuperant, Plantation Bitters. The constantly increasing patronage which it receives has, it is true, excited the petty envy of certain splenetic advertisers of pinchbeck panecess, who hope to make a market for their own stagnant, watery ware, by decrying all spirit-uous medicinal preparations. But the publie can stomach neither their arguments nor their potations, and consequently reject these very weak imitations of the enemy as entirely too thin!

ATTENTION!

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when the Aldine assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than double the past year; proving that the American public appreciate a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of the Aldine.

The Aldine will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest; avoiding such as have been familiar, through photographs or copies of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches, apprepriate to the four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January. April, July, and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.
